

SymptomChecker

Promote Smart Treatment Decisions

Consumers suffering from acute symptoms aren't always sure of the implications. Often, the emergency room is their most convenient option for treatment and medical triage. In those situations, OptumHealth Consumer Solutions' SymptomChecker adds value to your health and wellness offering. It is a highly dynamic, interactive online application, designed to help consumers make smart health care decisions. Built on a proprietary triage algorithm that functions like an "expert system," it gives users specific guidance on conditions, and where and when to seek treatment.

Benefits:

The SymptomChecker can be an extremely valuable tool for consumers with immediate health care concerns — and important decisions to make. It's easy-to-use, and credible, and can play an important role in helping consumers understand the implications of their symptoms and direct them to appropriate care based on the severity of their symptoms.

You benefit from reduced health care costs attributed to appropriate use of our health care system.

Key Features:

- ✓ Consumer-friendly navigation and dynamic graphics
- ✓ Specific guidance on where and when to seek treatment
- ✓ Clinician-reviewed treatment suggestions
- ✓ Detailed branching question sets
